Rich Lane has been successfully engaged in the mortgage finance industry since 2000. He is licensed through the California Bureau of Real Estate and is primarily focused on making home ownership a reality for his clients.

Rich has helped hundreds of families in purchasing and refinancing their homes. Working exclusively from referrals, his satisfied clients have contributed to his continued success. His communication skills, his insider insights and his honesty are what set him apart. He has earned a loyal and enthusiastic following throughout California and predominantly in the Southern California market.

Rich has been particularly effective in establishing long-term relationships with Realtors, Attorneys, Financial Planners, Accountants and Business Owners. In addition, Rich has been working with commercial real estate professionals and has enthusiastically closed numerous challenging noteworthy transactions.

Aside from the mortgage industry; Rich is an active on the Board of Directors for Make-A-Wish OC/IC and enjoys traveling with his wife Zelyne. They're expecting a new baby girl in the spring of 2017!

On most weekends, you will find Rich golfing, racing moto-cross, or riding mountain bikes. Rich has quite the appetite for completion and still plays in a weekly basketball and tennis league.

Rich subscribes to three main core principles for business and life: #1 'Do the right thing,' #2 'Do your very best' and #3 'Show people you care.' These are qualities that every client can expect to receive from Rich Lane.
